By enrolling in a training session using this registration form, e-mail, fax, or telephone, you agree to attend the training session on the prescribed scheduled date. Any cancellation or withdrawal from a session by you or any member or your enrolled party must be received and acknowledged by the Comark Training Coordinator, or designee, at least seven-days prior to the training session start date. Failure to comply with this term may result in a forfeiture of your right to attend, and Comark's obligation to provide, training.

If the obligation of Comark to provide training is not part of a prevailing purchase and sales agreement or active service contract, and has been prepaid by purchase order or credit card, no refunds or credits will be issued for cancellations or withdrawals less than seven-days prior to the scheduled training session start date. A 100% refund less a $50.00 administrative charge per person will be issued for cancellations or withdrawals completed at least seven-days prior to the training session start date. Please refer to the Comark Training Course General Terms & Conditions.

Enrollment for training is on a first-come first-serve basis.
